UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE JAMES
HEARING CURRENTLY SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY 26, 2009

The United States hereby moves the Court for a continuance of the James Hearing currently scheduled for January 26, 2009 and in support of its motion states as follows:

1. On January 6, 2009, Mark Chouinard, counsel for defendant George Osgood (“Osgood”) filed a motion to withdraw due to an unwaivable conflict of interest in this case. (Doc. 1496). At this time, new counsel has not been appointed for Osgood.

2. Because Osgood is without conflict-free counsel, a James hearing cannot currently be held as to Osgood. Moreover, it would be a waste of judicial resources to hold multiple James hearings. Therefore, the United States requests that the James hearing be continued until new counsel has been appointed for Osgood and that counsel has had sufficient time to prepare for the hearing.

3. Counsel for the remaining co-defendants join in this motion.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests that the Court grant a continuance of the James hearing presently scheduled for January 26, 2009.

Respectfully submitted,

GREGORY J. FOURATT
United States Attorney
